Suzy is very personable, knowledgeable, and helpful. She does a great job answering questions, providing helpful, constructive feedback, and encouraging a positive atmosphere. She would make a great supervisor!

At this time, I cannot think of an area for improvement, I have had a great experience with her so far.

Yes! The feedback that Suzy offers to other students and to me has been helpful for me to develop as a counselor. She also offers great resources and sends multiple helpful links for newer counseling students to check out during class. Additionally, she does a great job validating the concerns of counselors in training while also providing productive steps to take. This promotes confidence in me and others as well as allows us to learn and grow.
